

Officer Safety Alert

The websites listed below were brought to our attention as officer safety concerns due to the ease in which personal information, such as your home address, can be obtained. Even if you have an unlisted number, your home address and a map to your house might be displayed.

This bulletin will provide you with information on how to remove your name and personal information from the list: (It only takes a few minutes to remove your information)

1) Visit the below listed websites:

MSN -WhitePages.com
WhitePages.com
Switchboard.com
AnyWho.com

2) Type in your name and address under "People Search"

3) If your name appears; click on the details button (If your name does not appear then you are not listed)

4) Scroll down near the bottom of the page to the "Privacy Options" section and click on "Is this you? Remove from listing" link.

Privacy Options
Learn more about privacy
Is this you? Remove your listing

A confirmation message will appear on your screen stating that your information will be deleted.

*Caution- Do not pay for any of the solicitations ("sponsored links") that claim that they have additional information on you. If you have submitted a Demand Letter, they will not have the information for display. Also, you agree to opt-in when you purchase information.